

Q35: If video lectures form the most renowned professors in the world were offered as part of the course material, in lieu of regular class lectures, do you agree or disagree that this type of classroom set-up would enhance your learning?

