

Q34: If your professor offered video lectures form the most renowned professors in the world as part of the course material, in addition to regular class lectures, do you agree or disagree that this type of classroom set-up would enhance your learning?

